U. S. SENATORS ARE ELECTED

NOT UNTIL A WARM DUEL OF WORDS, HOWEVER.

WHO WOULD BE WHO

Guthrie, Okla., Dec. 11.—In a dramatic duel that threatened to indefinitely postpone the election of United States senators, the house and senate spent two hours in jockeying for position today, the point at issue being whether Lieutenant Governor Bellamy or Speaker Murray should preside at the joint sessions of the two houses.

A truce finally was declared, the lieutenant governor being accorded the honor, but the question is not definitely settled and both house and senate will battle for a position of supremacy in rank.

Senator Billups nominated Thomas Pryor Gore of Lawton. The name of Robert L. Owen of Muskogee was presented by Senator Brook of Muskogee that of Col. Clarence Douglass by Senator Stafford and that of C. G. Jones by Senator Brownlee.

The controversy preceding the formal election of Senators Owen and Gore, which took place at 3:45 o'clock was both spectacular and vigorous. The backbones of the leaders of both horses and those of their indomitable supporters were put to a test.

Each house convened shortly before noon, transacted preliminary business preparatory to the election and took up matters relating to joint rules of procedure. The house adjourned from its regular chamber at 11:45 and went in a body to Brooks opera house, which was this forenoon designated by a joint committee as a convenient place for the joint meeting. The senate, however, at once engaged in a wrangle over who should preside at this joint session, an dthere began a series of dramatic incidents that will make the day long remembered in history.

With dignified silence the house sat as an organized body in the Brooks opera house. To their right in the lower gallery, sat Governor Haskell and his family, above them in the upper gallery, were the state officers and their families. Practically all the rear floor seats were taken and the galleries were almost filled. On the stage Speaker Murray, the house clerks and stenographers and the press reporters.

Promptly at 12 o'clock the speaker rapped the house to order. A roll call showed a quorum present. The house was ready to proceed with the nomination of United States senators. But there was no joint session as yet. Several minutes passed. The audience grew restless. Presently a messenger appeared from behind the scenes bearing a message from the senate containing the intelligence that the senate had reconsidered its action in adopting the rules that should govern joint sessions of the houses and had changed that section of the rules providing that the speaker of the house should preside over joint sessions, fixing it so as to confer that honor upon the lieutenant governor and president of the senate, and asking the house to make a similar amendment.

All differences having been amicably settled during the interim between adjournment of the house at 2 o'clock and its re-convention at 3:30, both houses of the legislature met in joint convention in the legislative chamber.

At 3:45 came the announcement: "Mr. Speaker, the senate approaches."

"Admit the honorable senate," the speaker replied.

Amid cheers of members of the house standing by their seats the senate filed down the center aisle, led by Lieutenant Governor Bellamy and President Pro Tempore Johnston, and took seats that had been reserved for them adjoining the aisle, Governor Bellamy occupying a chair at the right of Speaker Murray.

After roll call, the nominating speeches were made.

In nominating Senator Gore Senator Billups traced the career of the blind statesman from the days when he was a boy in Mississippi, telling of his hard strugeles and indomitable courage.

Senator Brook's nominating speech, in which he placed the name of Robert L. Owen before the convention, was eloquent and fervent. He briefly outlined the conditions leading up to the admission of Oklahoma into statehood and concluded with a hearty endorsement of the principles of Senator Owen, referring to him as "a man through whose veins courses the best blood that ever flowed through that of an American citizen and a man who represents the highest type of his own race, he being a citizen by blood of that great tribe now almost ertinct—an Indian of the Cherokee tribe."

He told of his official career of his trips to Washington in behalf of the Indians and of his accomplishments before the bar.

Senator Stanford, in a set speech, presented the name of Colonel Clarence Douglas and the nomination of Senator Jones followed.

THE SILENCE IS BROKEN

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT SPEAKS OUT CONCERNING CANDIDACY.

HAS NOT CHANGED HIS MIND

Waited for Convention Call, He Says, to Make Announcement that He Would Keep Word.

Washington, Dec. 10.—President Roosevelt will not be a candidate for a third term. All doubt on this point was tonight dispelled by the authoritative statement from the White House that Mr. Roosevelt still adheres to the declaration of renunciation made on the night of the election three years ago. In the statement issued tonight President Roosevelt says he has not changed and shall not change the decision delivered to the American people in 1904.

It appears that President Roosevelt had been awaiting the call for the republican national convention to afford what he considered the proper opportunity for making his position clear and unmistakable, thus leaving the field clear for Fairbanks, Taft, Cannon, Knox, Foaker and other declared or receptive candidate for the nomination.

The president's statement follows:

"In view of the issuance of the call of the national republican committee for the convention the president makes this statement:

"On the night after election I made the following announcement: 'I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the fullest the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the fourth of March next I shall have served three and a half years and this three and a half years constitute my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.

Badly Mixed Up.

Respond to Addresses Made in Their Behalf in Joint Session.

Guthrie, Okla., Dec. 11.—In response to the speeches placing his name before the legislature for election to the United States senate today, Seantor Owen talked for 20 minutes. He expressed his pride in the citizenship of Oklahoma, paid a tribute to its women and the integrity of its men. He praised the constitution and admonished the legislators to the grave resposibilities confronting them, declaring that while he is willing to do all in his power for the state at Washington, the state has an opportunity to do great things for itself.

He favored the removal of Indian restrictions and said that the Oklahoma delegation in congress is united on all matters looking to the welfare of the state.

Senator Gore replied in a humorous vein, saying that he enjoyed the fencing match between the houses today that he had not known that the democrats were victorious in the September electiop rior to this time, the fighting proclivities of the legislators would have apprised him of the fact. He said that the legislature gave him the senatorship as a birthday present.

"It was thirty-seven years ago yesterday," he said, "that I discovered America, and as Oklahoma is the youngest state in the union it is fitting that I should be the youngest senator from that state." He closed his address by thanking the legislature and expressing himself as favoring Bryan for president and Murray for vice president.

Commoner Will Visit Oklahoma.

Guthrie, Okla., Dec. 11.—William J. Bryan, the great commoner and leader of the democratic party, will address a joint session of the Oklahoma legislature in the forenoon of Saturday, December 21.

Mr. Bryan wired Governor Haskell today asking him if December 23 would be convenient for him to address the joint meeting of the legislature. Governor Haskell replied that the legislature intended to adjourn on December 21. Mr. Bryan then agreed to come to Oklahoma the earlier date.

BLACK ROCK.

Messrs. Black and Spangler went to Ada Friday with four bales of cotton. D. M. Keen and Cod Bands went to Ada Friday with five bales of cotton.

Bud Perry of Ada was down last week on a hunt.

Drew Patterson and Mat Earnest will soon move near Chickasha, Okla.

There is a great deal of talk of an uprising of the Snake Indians. The people of the Black Rock neighborhood are becoming alarmed about it. They are still holding their war dances around Red Springs and have told several parties they intended to kill off all the whites. There are about 500 Indians and negroes in the vicinity of Red Springs now and it is reported that owing to the failure of the banks to pay out money they are in a destitute condition. The negroes are joining them. If an uprising should occur considerable damage would be done before they could be checked, and several people killed. This matter should be investigated by county and state authorities.—Francis Wigwam.

SCHEME CHANGED.

Martial Law Not Declared in Goldfield—One Mine Opens Today.

Goldfield, Nev., Dec. 11.—President Roosevelts communication from Washington to Colonel Alfred Reynolds, in command of the federal troops at Goldfield which was posted in conspicuous places throughout the city this afternoon by direction of the president, put a different complexion on the situation here.

This, coupled with the fact that General Funston is to arrive in Goldfield tomorrow to view the situation and report to Washington, caused a complete change in the program of the mine operators, who had hoped to be able, through Governor Sparks, to have martial law declared in Goldfield tonight, and to re-open the mine tomorrow under the active protection of the United States Troops.

COURT MAY APPROVE LEASES.

Assistant Attorney General Lewis Decides question Important to Indians.

Guthrie, Okla., Dec. 11.—County courts may appoint guardians for minor Indians and may also approve leases heretofore made by guardians of minor Indians, even though the land in question is no part of the original allotment, according to an opinion given out today by Fielding Lewis, assistant attorney general, and approved by Attorney General West.

The question was raised by Judge Terrill, of Ada. The attorney general bases his decision on the third section of the enabling act which gives the state jurisdiction over all matters which are not appealed to the United States circuit court.

HORRORS OF DARK AGES.

The horror of horrors in all Italy is found at Padua, known as the torture rooms of that demonical monster of cruelty, Ecelino, a thirteenth century ruler of Verona, Padua, Vicenza and Brescia. His cruelties finally became so intolerable that the church proclaimed a crusade against him. The peasantry rose and a farmer killed the brute with a scythe. I was shown an upright box in which was the skeleton of a victim. Two apertures enabled the condemned to see a table just out of reach, crowded with food and drink. To-day, it is stage food and the wine is colored water, but the realism is intense. The climax of shudders was reached when I came to a block in the center of a small square room. Nailed to the chopping block, severed midway between the wrist and elbow lay the dainty hand of a woman, just as it had been chopped from the living arm! The instant my eyes saw this sight the cell seemed to resound with the shrieks of the terrified woman, and, although the hand I gazed upon was of wax, the mental shock produced was dreadful beyond conception.—Brooklyn Eagle.

LAST DAYS OF GREAT POETS.

On the day when he last entered the Atlantic office, in January, Mr. Aldrich seemed, for the first time, to have grown old. One of his friends spoke of it as he went out. Up till that morning, the weight of 70 years had scarcely seemed to touch the erect, jaunty figure. The lines that time had written around his clear blue eyes and firm mouth conveyed no hint of senility. His hair was scarcely gray. His voice, slightly husky in its graver sweeter tones, retained a delicious youthful crispness as it curled and broke, wave-like into flashing raillery. He had just completed his poem for the Longfellow centenary, his first verse after some years of silence, and when it was praised to his face—for who could help praising it?—he blushed with pleasure like a boy. Yet he had passed three-score and ten, and the shadow, invisible as yet and quite unheralded, was drawing very near.—Miss Perry, in Atlantic.

An Indiana traveling man told a story the other day of an incident on the road. He was in the smoking car of an express train reading his paper when a man rushed in from the car behind the smoker, evidently in great agitation and said: "Has anybody in his car any whisky? A woman in the car behind has fainted!" Instantly dozens of flasks were produced. The man who had asked for it picked out the largest one, drew the cork and put the bottle to his lips. With a long, satisfied sigh he handed the flask back, and remarked: "That did me a lot of good, and I needed it, for it always makes me feel queer to see a woman faint away!"

Happiness.

Happiness in this world, when it comes, comes incidentally. Make it the object of pursuit, and it leads us a wild goose chase, and is never attained. Follow some other object, and very possibly we may find that we have caught happiness without dreaming of it, but likely enough it is gone the moment we say to ourselves "Here it is!" like the chest of gold that treasure-seekers find. . . . There is something more awful in happiness than in sorrow—the latter being earthly and finite, the former composed of the substance and texture of eternity so that spirits still embodied may well tremble at it.—Nathaniel Hawthorne.

Real Hard Cider.

John Fair, a highly respected citizen of Montgomeryville, Armstrong county, has at his home a small keg containing several quarts of cider which was made by himself 51 years ago, says the Philadelphia Record. Altogether there were several kegs of the liquid, but now only a few quarts remain, and Mr. Fair is guarding that jealously. The cider is so old that it has turned black in color, and so strong that less than a teaspoonful will put a drinker in the Happy Land.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments, must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential.

Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the Local.

Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional.

The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments.

The "Night Cure", as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, eases nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well

The Ada News Subscription Contest

From last Monday, December 2d, to continue four months, ending March 31st, The News inaugurated a great SUBSCRIPTION CONTEST devoted to securing a larger and more extended circulation and to properly rewarding those who may become our associates and helpers in this undertaking.

All the premiums will be listed in the order of their conservatively estimated values. At the expiration of the contest, the premium awards will be made by the contest judges who will be selected with a view to their fitness, based on their reputations for honesty and fair dealing.

To the lady contestant securing the highest number of votes there will be given a $500 upright ,standard brand piano, accompanied with a guarantee of ten years purchased from the Mathews Music Company of Ada, a most responsible music house. See splendid piano displayed in their store window. To the contestant, Ladies and Gentlemen included—securing the second highest number of votes there will be given a warranty deed to a Three Hundred ($300.00) dollar dwelling lot situated in the most select part of Sunrise Addition, Ada, Okla. This pretty lot has a prospective value of easily Eeven Hundred and Fifty Dollars, for it is level and high and close in, and is the adjoining lot to one on which is constructed splendid two story $4,000 home. Within one block of the lot which will be given away is situated the elegant homes of Tom Chambless, Henry Furman, Tom Hope, Dr. Legon, Mrs. Sowers, Dr. King, Henry Young, A. M. Croxton and J. E. Miles, which represents actual real estate values of more than Thirty Thousand ($30,000) Dollars.

There will be several other premiums included in other valuable real estate situated in the more substantial towns in this section, and in addition a $100 standard typewriter and an $80.00 life scholarship in Hill's business college.

This is called The News $1,500 Subscription Contest, for it is proposed to give that much in value in premiums. So attractive will be this contest, that those entering may safely feel certain that for a few week's pleasant occupation, there may be secured not only wide reputation for popularity and high standing ,but, as well the ownership of substantial property, which under ordinary circumstances would take many long months of hard labor to acquire.

The News suggests that you be first from your community to get in the contest. You will be gratified to learn the number of your friends who will save News coupons good for six votes for you and as well renew their subscriptions and become new subscribers. For every dollar collected in any manner on subscription to the News there will be credited in favor of contestant whom subscriber may designate One Hundred Votes. It has been decided that for every dollar paid on subscription to The Daily News, there will only be allowed fifty votes instead of One Hundred Votes as in the Weekly News and instead of each coupon in the Daily News being good for six votes as in the Weekly News, each Coupon will only be worth one vote.

This premium contest is inaugurated principally in behalf of The Weekly News, and it is determined that the rules promulgated shall not militate against the boys and girls and men and women in the country districts. After this week the location of the premiums in contest will be published that all may determine for themselves the value of News premium offers.

ARKANSAW HEARD FROM.

With Quaint Phrasing Arkansas Senator Declares War on Trusts and Defies Time Worn Precedents.

Washington, Dec. 11.—Passonate oratory marked the proceedings of the senate today. Senator Jeff Davis of Arkansas, who when elected declared that he would attack the trusts immediately after taking his seat, fulfilled his promise, although he was a few days late in doing so.

The speech was filled with sensational declarations, and was given with that vigor for which the Arkansas senator is famous in his own state. Quaint phrasing, pointed denunciations and evidences of intense emotion characterized his remarks. He was given a careful hearing by senators and the galleries were well filled throughout the time he held the floor. Beginning shortly before 1 o'clock, he spoke for a little more than an hour. At the close of the speech the senate went into executive session and at 2:10 o'clock adjourned.

The house was not in session today.

As Senator Davis spoke he showed great emotion and his voice trembled. His words rang with resounding effect throughout the chamber.

Speaking of the annual appropriations for the expenses of the government, amounting to $900,000,000, he turned to Senator Beveridge and added:

"Pile it up on this floor and let my good looking young friend, the senator from Indiana start to count it. He would be as old as Methusaleh before he could count half of it."

The senator detailed appropriations made for maintaining the White house.

Notice of Hearing Petition for Probate of Will.

State of Oklahoma, Pontotoc County, In County Court.

Notice is hereby given to all persons interested in the estate of Charles McNeil, deceased, that on the 2d day of December, 1907, J. W. Paddock produced and filed in the County Court of the County of Pontotoc and state of Oklahoma, an instrument in writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Charles McNeil, deceased, and also filed in said court his petition praying for the probate of said Will, and that letters of administration issued thereon to J. W. Paddock the executor named in said Will, and that said petition will be heard at the Court room of said court in the city of Ada in said County and State, on Saturday the 14th day of December, 1907, at the hour of one o'clock p. m., of said day, when and where all persons interested can appear and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the county court of said county, this 2d day of December, 1907.

JOEL TERRELL,
County Judge.

OAKMAN.

W. C. Jones, a Farmers' Union lecturer, addressed the people in Oakman last week. The Union re-organized with G. M. Isham, president, T. J. Myres, vice president, J. T. Howell, secretary and treasurer, Joe Fox, chaplain, Frank Fox, conductor and W. H. Brewer, door keeper. The Union is made of our best citizens and promises a bright future.

Rev. G. M. Isham has been very sick this week but we are glad to note that he is up and around at this time.

Giles, the little son of F. A. and Mrs. Holman has been quite sick but is reported better.

Buck Smith's little step son, a baby about one year old, died Sunday morning. It was sick only a very few days and considered dangerous only about twelve hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith have the heartfelt symathy of this entire community.

T. F. Bennett is now trying to contract for a farm south of Ada, and will move there if he closes the deal.

Mrs. M. L. Hunt, living 1½ miles east of town is reported very sick at this writing. It is hoped that she will recover soon.

Why can't some body let our new esquire speak the sweet words that will make two one. Boys, get busy.

Why can not the Frisco give us a side track? It seems to us that the railroad is doing the people of Oakman unfairly and that they should treat them with more fairness and honesty. We should have at least on train each way each day. Under the present plan we are having very poor mail service, and we hope that if the railroad people will not come to our assistance that the state and government authorities will attend to the matter.

The people assembled at the school building Monday and elected T. J. Myres, J. T. Howell and S. J. Smith a committee to take up the matter of good roads with the commissioners court.

S. J. Smith, T. A. Holman and T. J Myres were in Ada this week.—Francis Wigwam.

U. S. SENATORS ARE ELECTED

NOT UNTIL A WARM DUEL OF WORDS, HOWEVER.

WHO WOULD BE WHO

Guthrie Okla Dec 11 In a dramatic duel that threatened to indefinitely postpone the election of United States senators the house and senate spent two hours in jockeying for position today the point at issue being whether Lieutenant Governor Bellamy or Speaker Murray should preside at the joint sessions of the two house

A truce finally was declared the [illegible] ... and left house [illegible] senat [illegible]

Each house convened shortly before noon transacted preliminary business preparatory to the election and took up matters relating to joint rules of procedure The house adjourned from its regular chamber at 11 45 and went in a body to Brooks opera house which was this forenoon designated by a joint committee as a convenient place for the joint meeting The senate however at once engaged in a wrangle over who should preside at this joint session, an dthere began a series of dramatic incidents that will make the day long remembered in history

With dignified silence the house sat as an organized body in the Brooks opera house To their right in the lower gallery sat Governor Haskell and his family above them in the upper gallery were the state officers and their families Practically all the rear floor seats were taken and the galleries were almost filled On the stage Speaker Murray the house clerks and stenographers and the press reporters

Promptly at 12 o clock the speaker rapped the house to order A roll call showed a quorum present The house was ready to proceed with the nomination of United States senator but [illegible]

[illegible]

Mr onderers [illegible] during the interim between adjournment of the h[illegible] o clock and its re-convention at [illegible] the legislature met in joint convention in the legislative chamber

At 3 15 came the announcement Mr Speaker the senate approaches.

Admit the honorable senate the speaker replied

Amid cheers of members of the house standing by their seats the senators filed down the center aisle led by Lieutenant Governor Bellamy and President Pro Tempore Johnston and took seats that had been reserved for them adjoining the aisle Governor Bellamy occupying a chair at the right of Speaker Murray

After roll call the [illegible] speeches were made

In nominating Senator Gore Senator Billups traced the career of the blind statesman from the days when he was a boy in Mississippi [illegible] his hard struggles and ndomitable courage

Senator Brooks nominating speech in which he placed the name of Robert L Owen before the convention was eloquent and fervent He [illegible] outlined the conditions [illegible] up to the admission of Oklahoma into statehood and concluded with a hearty endorsement of the principles of Senator Owen referring to him as a man through whose veins courses the best blood that ever flowed through that of an American citizen and a man who represents the highest type of his own race he being a citizen by blood of that great tribe now almost extinct—an Indian of the Cherokee tribe

He told of his official career of his trips to Washington in behalf of the Indians and of his accomplishments before the bar

Senator Stanford in a set speech presented the name of Colonel Clarence Douglass [illegible] Pryor Gore of Lawton The name of Robert L Owen of Muskogee was presented by Senator Brook of Muskogee that of Col Clarence Douglass by Senator Stafford and that of C G Jones by Senator Brownlee.

The controversy preceding the formal election of Senators Owen and Gore which took place at 3 15 o clock was both spectacular and vigorous The backbones of the leaders of both forces and those of their indomitable supporters were put to a test appeared from behind the scenes bearing a message from the senate containing the intelligence that the senate had reconsidered its action in adopting the rules that should govern joint sessions of the houses and had changed that section of the rules providing that the speaker of the house should preside over joint sessions fixing it so as to confer that honor upon the lieutenant governor and president of the senate and asking the house to make a similar amendment

An Indiana [illegible] told a story the other day [illegible] an incident on the road. He was in the smoking car of an express train reading his paper when a man rushed in from the car behind the smoker evidently in great agitation and said: "Has anybody in this car any whisky? A woman in the car behind has fainted!" Instantly dozens of flasks were produced. The man who had asked for it picked out the largest one, drew the cork and put the bottle to his lips. With a long satisfied [illegible] he handed the flask back and [illegible] "Thanks. [illegible] It always makes me [illegible] queer to see a woman faint away."

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential.

Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the Local.
Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional.

The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments.

The "Night Cure", as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, eases nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well

The Ada News Subscription Contest

From last Monday, December 24, to continue four months, ending March 31st, The News inaugurated a great SUBSCRIPTION CONTEST devoted to securing a larger and more extended circulation and to properly rewarding those who may become our associates and helpers in this undertaking.

All the premiums will be listed in the order of their conservatively estimated values. At the expiration of the contest, the premium awards will be made by the contest judges who will be selected with a view to their fitness, based on their reputations for honesty and fair dealing

To the lady contestant securing the highest number of votes there will be given a $500 upright ,standard brand piano, accompanied with a guarantee of ten years purchased from the Mathews Music Company of Ada, a most responsible music house. See splendid piano displayed in their store window To the contestant, Ladies and Gentlemen included—securing the second highest number of votes there will be given a warranty deed to a Three Hundred ($300.00) dollar dwelling lot situated in the most select part of Sunrise Addition, Ada, Okla This pretty lot has a prospective value of easily Five Hundred and Fifty Dollars, for it is level and high and close in, and is the adjoining lot to one on which is constructed splendid two story $4,000 home. Within one block of the lot which will be given away is situated the elegant homes of Tom Chambless, Henry Furman, Tom Hope Dr. Legon, Mrs. Sowers, Dr. King, Henry Young, A. M Croxton and J. L. Miles, which represents actual real estate values of more than Thirty Thousand ($30,000) Dollars.

There will be several other premiums included in other valuable real estate situated in the more substantial towns in this section, and in addition a $100 standard typewriter and an $80.00 life scholarship in Hill's business college.

This is called The News $1,500 Subscription Contest, for it is proposed to give that much in value in premiums. So attractive will be this contest, that those entering may safely feel certain that for a few week's pleasant occupation, there may be secured not only wide reputation for popularity and high standing ,but, as well the ownership of substantial property, which under ordinary circumstances would take many long months of hard labor to acquire.

The News suggests that you be first from your community to get in the contest. You will be gratified to learn the number of your friends who will save News coupons good for six votes for you and as well renew their subscriptions and become new subscribers. For every dollar collected in any manner on subscription to the News there will be credited in favor of contestant whom subscriber may designate One Hundred Votes. It has been decided that for every dollar paid on subscription to The Daily News, there will only be allowed fifty votes instead of One Hundred Votes as in the Weekly News and instead of each coupon in the Daily News being good for six votes as in the Weekly News, each Coupon will only be worth one vote.

This premium contest is inaugurated principally in behalf of The Weekly News, and it is determined that the rules promulgated shall not militate against the boys and girls and men and women in the country districts. After this week the location of the premiums in contest will be published that all may determine for themselves the value of News premium offers.

All interested parties are cordially invited to communicate with the editor either through correspondence or by personal call.

ARKANSAW HEARD FROM.

With Quaint Phrasing Arkansas Senator Declares War on Trusts and Denies Time Worn Precedents.

Washington Dec 11 Pissonate oratory marked the proceedings of the senate today Senator Jeff Davis of Arkansas who when elected declared that he would destroy the trusts immediately after taking his seat fulfilled his promise although he was a few days late in doing so

The speech was filled with sensational declarations and was given with that vigor for which the Arkansas senator is famous in his own state Quaint phrasing pointed denunciations and evidences of intense emotion characterized his remarks He was given a careful hearing by senators and the galleries were well filled throughout the time he held the floor Beginning shortly before 1 o clock he spoke for a little more than an hour At the close of the speech the senate went into executive session and at 2 10 o clock adjourned

As Senator Davis spoke he showed great emotion and his voice trembled His words rang with resounding effect throughout the chamber

Speaking of the annual appropriations for the expenses of the government amounting to $900 000 000 he turned to Senator Beveridge and added

Pile it up on this floor and let my good looking young friend the senator from Indiana start to count it He would be as old as Methuselah before he could count half of it

The senator detailed appropriations made for maintaining the White house

U. S. SENATORS ARE ELECTED

NOT UNTIL A WARM DUEL OF WORDS, HOWEVER.

WHO WOULD BE WHO

Guthrie Okla Dec 11 In a dramatic duel that threatened to indefinitely postpone the election of United States senators the house and senate spent two hours in jockeying for position today the point at issue being whether Lieutenant Governor Bellamy or Speaker Murray should preside at the joint sessions of the two house. A truce finally was declared the [illegible]

Each house convened shortly before noon transacted preliminary business preparatory to the election and took up matters relating to joint rules of procedure. The house adjourned from its regular chamber at 11 45 and went in a body to Brooks opera house which was this forenoon designated by a joint committee as a convenient place for the joint meeting. The senate however at once engaged in a wrangle over who should preside at this joint session, and there began a series of dramatic incidents that will make the day long remembered in history.

With dignified silence the house sat as an organized body in the Brooks opera house. To their right in the lower gallery sat Governor Haskell and his family above them in the upper gallery were the state officers and their families. Practically all the rear floor seats were taken and the galleries were almost filled. On the stage Speaker Murray the house clerks and stenographers and the press reporters.

Promptly at 12 o clock the speaker rapped the house to order. A roll call showed a quorum present. The house was ready to proceed with the nomination of United States senator but [illegible]

All conferences [illegible] during the [illegible] between adjournment of the house [illegible] o clock and its re-convention at [illegible] the legislature met in joint convention in the legislative chamber.

At 3 15 came the announcement "Mr Speaker the senate approaches."

"Admit the honorable senate" the speaker replied.

Amid cheers of members of the house standing by their seats the senate filed down the center aisle led by Lieutenant Governor Bellamy and President Pro Tempor Johnston and took seats that had been reserved for them adjoining the aisle Governor Bellamy occupying a chair at the right of Speaker Murray.

After roll call [illegible] speeches were made.

In nominating Senator Gore Senator Billups traced the career of the blind statesman from the days when he was a boy in Mississippi [illegible] his hard struggles and [illegible] courage.

Senator Brooks nominating speech in which he placed the name of Robert L Owen before the convention was eloquent and fervent. He briefly outlined the conditions leading up to the admission of Oklahoma into statehood and concluded with a hearty endorsement of the principles of Senator Owen referring to him as "a man through whose veins courses the best blood that ever flowed through that of an American citizen and a man who represents the highest type of his own race he being a citizen by blood of that great tribe now almost extinct—an Indian of the Cherokee tribe."

He told of his official career of his trips to Washington in behalf of the Indians and of his accomplishments before the bar.

Senator Stanford in a set speech presented the name of Colonel Clarence [illegible] Pryor Gore of Lawton. The name of Robert L Owen of Muskogee was presented by Senator Brook of Muskogee that of Col Clarence Douglass by Senator Stafford and that of C G Jones by Senator Brownlee.

The controversy preceding the formal election of Senators Owen and Gore which took place at 2 45 o clock was both spectacular and vigorous. The backbones of the leaders of both forces and those of their indomitable supporters were put to a test [illegible] appeared from behind the scenes bearing a message from the senate containing the intelligence that the senate had reconsidered its action in adopting the rules that should govern joint sessions of the houses and had changed that section of the rules providing that the speaker of the house should preside over joint sessions fixing it so as to confer that honor upon the lieutenant governor and president of the senate and asking the house to make a similar amendment [illegible] nce Do [illegible] the nominating speeches of [illegible] followed.

PRESIDENT [illegible] SPEAKS OUT [illegible] CANDIDACY

HAS NOT CHANGED HIS MIND

Waited For Convention Call He Says to Make Announcement that He Would Keep Word.

Washington Dec 10 President Roosevelt will not be a candidate for a third term. All doubt on this point was tonight dispelled by the authoritative statement from the White House that Mr Roosevelt still adheres to the declaration of renunciation made on the night of the election three years ago. In the statement issued tonight [illegible] this statement.

On the night after election I made the following announcement: "I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the fullest the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes on me and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the fourth of March next I shall have served three and a half years and this three and a half years constitute my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination."

I have not changed and shall not change the decision thus announced.

TWO NORMAL SCHOOLS GET NEW PRESIDENTS

The board selected Walter [illegible] as president of the Alva normal school his duties beginning the first of next year. J F Sharp was selected as president of the Weatherford school to begin work January 1.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential. Dr Shoop's Night Cure is the Local. Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional. The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments. The "Night Cure", as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, eases nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well

From last Monday, December 2d, to continue four months, ending March 31st, the News inaugurated a great SUBSCRIPTION CONTEST devoted to securing a larger and more extended circulation and to properly rewarding those who may become our associates and helpers in this undertaking.

All the premiums will be listed in the order of their conservatively estimated values. At the expiration of the contest, the premium awards will be made by the contest judges who will be selected with a view to their fitness, based on their reputations for honesty and fair dealing.

To the lady contestant securing the highest number of votes there will be given a $500 upright standard brand piano, accompanied with a guarantee of ten years purchased from the Mathews Music Company of Ada, a most responsible music house. See splendid piano displayed in their store window. To the contestant, ladies and gentlemen included—securing the second highest number of votes there will be given a warranty deed to a Three Hundred ($300.00) dollar dwelling lot situated in the most select part of Sauers Addition, Ada, Okla. This pretty lot has a prospective value of easily Eleven Hundred and Fifty Dollars, for it is level and high and close in, and is the adjoining lot to one on which is constructed splendid two story $4,000 home. Within one block of the lot which will be given away is situated the elegant homes of Tom Chambless, Henry Furman, Tom Hope, Dr. Legon, Mrs. Sowers, Dr. Kniz, Henry Young, A. M. Croxton and J. L. Miles, which represents actual real estate values of more than Thirty Thousand ($30,000) Dollars.

There will be several other premiums included in other valuable real estate situated in the more substantial towns in this section, and in addition a $100 standard typewriter and an $80.00 life scholarship in Hill's business college.

This is called The News $1,500 Subscription Contest, for it is proposed to give that much in value in premiums. So attractive will be this contest, that those entering may safely feel certain that for a few week's pleasant occupation, there may be secured not only wide reputation for popularity and high standing, but, as well the ownership of substantial property, which under ordinary circumstances would take many long months of hard labor to acquire.

The News suggests that you be first from your community to get in the contest. You will be gratified to learn the number of your friends who will save News coupons good for six votes for you and as well renew their subscriptions and become new subscribers. For every dollar collected in any manner on subscription to the News there will be credited in favor of contestant whom subscriber may designate One Hundred Votes. It has been decided that for every dollar paid on subscription to The Daily News, there will only be allowed fifty votes instead of One Hundred Votes as in the Weekly News and instead of each coupon in the Daily News being good for six votes as in the Weekly News, each Coupon will only be worth one vote.

This premium contest is inaugurated principally in behalf of The Weekly News, and it is determined that the rules promulgated shall not militate against the boys and girls and men and women in the country districts. After this week the location of the premiums in contest will be published that all may determine for themselves the value of News premium offers.

All interested parties are cordially invited to communicate with the editor, either through correspondence or by personal call.
